WebParcel™ .NET With ArcGIS Server

The WebParcel™ is a web-based application designed to easily publish Parcel Information and the associated Tax Assessor's Database using a user-friendly interface. This product can be rapidly implemented In a Local Government intranet/ internet infrastructure.
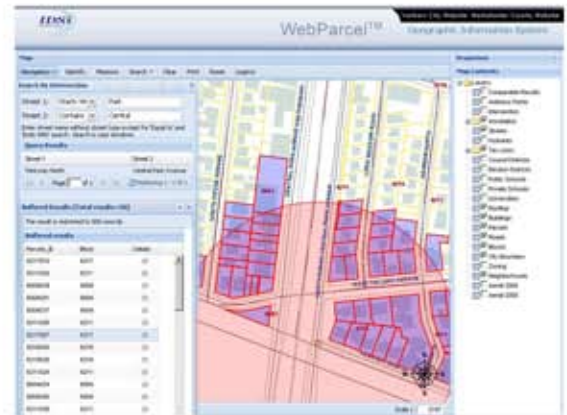

This product is an important tool for a local government agency moving towards complete task automation, e-Governance and strengthening relations with the community by reaching out to citizens with updated information and proactive planning tools. The WebParcel™ can be customized to implement different security levels and functionalities specific to various departments such as Public Works, Planning, and Emergency Response and can be integrated with third party systems

Search and locate a parcel and view the associated tax assessor's database in a single view

FEATURES

- Web Parcel™ is an end-to-end, web-based solution.

- Create a buffer of user-defined distance around a selected parcel and generate/print mailing labels.

- Search by Owner Name, Street Address, Parcel ID or section/block and lot.

- Search Results displayed as a sorted list.

- Zoom to a selected property with a single click.

- Generate or Print Property Records and Appraisal Cards.

- View tax assessor database details of any selected property.

- Display photographs of any selected property.

- Interactive Selection of multiple parcels.

- Easily print Maps of selected properties.

Several features can be customized to provide security authorization and task automation

Note: IDSi International provides ArcIMS hosting services. The hosting package includes 24X7 access, customized solutions, database integration, maintenance, and support. This option is recommended for clients who do not have the required hardware/software infrastructure or system administrators experienced in web server and ArcIMS technologies.